

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen

Back on the path of virtue, back to respectability. So is the motto of this year's message for the holidays and the New Year. Having used rather subjects of the more boisterous kind in recent years - such as the arrangement around the burning Christmas tree or hidden with the masked men wearing red scarves, we want to address this year in a more arranged way. Posing size wise - always a safe bet - we asked our photographer Markus Mallun to picture us from all sides, so that you can look at us from all possible perspectives. So with a little craftsmanship you can this year have a 3-D edition of ten and a half Michels picture. We - from left to right: Leah, Leon, Noemi, Marlon, Alexandra with Michels eleventh, Raquel, Vitt, Olivier, Julian and Etienne - wish you lots of fun doing your handcraft, a Merry Christmas and a great 2014.

the Michels
